Whatcom Community Physical Therapy, LLC Statement of HIPAA Compliance

This Document is Effective December 3rd, 2018

HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) was signed into law on August 21, 1996, Public Law 104-191. This law was designed to provide insurance portability, to improve the efficiency of health care by standardizing the exchange of administrative and financial data. It will also protect the privacy, confidentiality and security of health care information. It affects all areas of the health care industry.

Whatcom Community Physical Therapy, LLC (WCPT) upholds the HIPAA objectives and is pro-actively enhancing our existing HIPAA compliance initiatives. WCPT has committed to track and provide coordination, education, and communication for all HIPAA activities company-wide. This is for monitoring and verifying that all HIPAA efforts for readiness are proceeding successfully within WCPT's organization.

WebPT software programs have been reviewed in order to determine how to best assist our clinics and customers with their HIPAA readiness issues.

The complete text of the proposed and finalized rules, along with comments, is available at: <http://aspe.hhs.gov/admsimp>.

If you have any further questions regarding WCPT's processes or HIPAA readiness issues, please ask your HIPAA question through the links on this site, or visit our Website: <http://www.pickpt.com>.
